A great number of Bullets, Bombs, Carcaſſes, &c. are making in our Arſenal. Laſt Night we had a violent Storm of Wind here, by which many Trees were torn up by the Roots, and other great Damage was done. The Elector Palatine's Troops that are in the Pay of the States General, and were on their March to the Netherlands, having been countermanded by their Elector, have joyn'd other Palatine Troops at Langencandel, and are march'd together to the Lines at Lauterburg.

The Prince of Saxe Zeits having been at Duſſeldorp to take Leave of the Elector Palatine, and of the great Maſter of the Teutonick Order his Brother, ſet out from hence to Day for the Court of Vienna. The 2 Independant Companies of the King of Pruſſia's Troops that are garriſon'd in Deutz and Erkelens, making together about 200 Men, made an Incurſion a few Days ago into the County of Chateaurenaud beyond Sedan; where 300 Peaſants having barricaded themſelves in a Village, the Pruſſians ſet the Village on Fire, in 4 ſeveral Places and then found Means to break into it, They took and carried off the Curate of the Place and 14 of the principal Inhabitants, as Hoſtages for the Contributions they demanded. But in this Incurſion, the ſaid 2 Companies loſt 25 Men.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Auguſt 25.

Dantzick, Auguſt 12. Our Magiſtrates have caus'd 800 Men of the Troops garriſon'd in this City, to be poſted in the Suburbs, to prevent any Inſults that may be offer'd by the Detachment of Swedes commanded by Major General Meyerfeldt, to whom our Governour has ſent Word, that if his Troops attempt any Hoſtilities againſt thoſe of his Garriſon, they are order'd to defend themſelves. That Swediſh General has ſummon'd the Inhabitants of the Villages in which his Troops are quarter'd, to return to their Reſpective Dwellings with their Horſes and Cattle, threatening otherwiſe to burn their Houſes. The Engliſh Envoy, at the Requeſt of our Magiſtrates, has been with General Meyerfeldt; he remonſtrated to him that at the Time this City paid the King of Sweden 100000 Crowns, his Majeſty gave an Aſſurance in Writing that he would make no further Demands of the Town nor its Dependancies; and therefore deſir'd him to withdraw his Troops out of our Territories; but the General anſwer'd he could not ſtir without Order from his King.
